

ORDINANCE 09 - 2024

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF FORT WRIGHT, IN KENTON COUNTY, KENTUCKY, ESTABLISHING A CODE OF ETHICAL CONDUCT APPLICABLE TO THE OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES OF THE CITY AND CITY AGENCIES.

WHEREAS, the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky has enacted legislation requiring the City to enact and enforce a Code of Ethics governing the conduct of City Officers and Employees; and

WHEREAS, the Officials of this City are committed to the operation of an open and transparent City government manifesting the highest moral and ethical standards by its Officers and Employees and complying with all requirements of the Commonwealth's Local Government Ethics Law; and

WHEREAS, all prior Codes of Ethical Conduct previously adopted by the City (including but not limited to Ordinance No. 498-94, as amended by Ordinance No. 545-1997) are hereby repealed in their entirety.

NOW, THEREFORE, be it ordained by the legislative body of the City of Fort Wright, Kentucky:

SECTION 1. Title

This Ordinance shall be known and may be cited as the "City of Fort Wright, Kentucky Code of Ethics."

SECTION 2. Findings

The legislative body of the City of Fort Wright finds and declares that:

- A. Public office and employment by the City are public trusts.
- B. The vitality, stability and longevity of the government of this City depends upon the public's confidence in the honesty and integrity of its elected and appointed officers and employees. Whenever the public perceives a conflict between the private interests and public duties of a City Officer or Employee, that confidence is compromised.
- C. The government of this City has a duty to provide its citizens with standards by which they may determine whether public duties are being faithfully performed, and to make its Officers and Employees aware of the standards in this Code of Ethics.

SECTION 3. Purpose and Authority

- A. It is the purpose of this ordinance to provide assurance that standards of ethical conduct and financial disclosure requirements for Officers and Employees of the City shall be clearly established, uniform in their application, and enforceable. This Ordinance also provides the Officers and Employees of the City with advice and information concerning potential conflicts of interest which might arise in the conduct of their public duties.
- B. It is the further purpose of this Ordinance to meet the requirements of KRS 65.003.
- C. This Ordinance is enacted under the power vested in the City by KRS 82.082 and pursuant to the requirements of KRS 65.003.

- B. Nothing in this section shall prohibit any Officer or Employee from representing themselves in matters concerning their own interests.
- C. No Elected Officer shall be prohibited by this section from making any inquiry for information on behalf of a constituent if no compensation, reward, or other thing of value is promised to, given to, or accepted by the officer, whether directly or indirectly, in return for the inquiry.

If an Officer or Employee believes their accusation to be true, and then learns that it was false, even in part, they should apologize in the same forum and manner where the accusations were made. All complaints shall be in writing, signed by the complainant, and shall meet any other requirements established by the Board of Ethics. The Board of Ethics shall acknowledge receipt of a complaint to the complainant within 10 working days from the date of receipt. The Board of Ethics shall forward within 10 working days to each Officer or Employee of the City or City Agency who is the subject of the complaint, a copy of the complaint and a general statement of the applicable provisions of this Ordinance.
- B. The Board of Ethics may, on its own initiative, determine through an inquiry into informal allegations, information provided directly to the Board of Ethics, by referral, or otherwise that a violation of this Code may exist and prepare a complaint of its own. The Board of Ethics may also amend a complaint that has been filed with it by adding further allegations, adding respondents involved in the same conduct, directly or indirectly, by action or inaction, by deleting allegations that would not constitute a violation of this Code, by deleting allegations that have been made against persons or entities not covered by this Code, or by deleting allegations that do not appear to be supported by the facts. The Board of Ethics may also consolidate complaints where the allegations are materially related. Amended complaints must be sent to the complainant and respondent by the Board of Ethics.
- C. Within 30 days of the receipt of a proper complaint, the Board of Ethics shall conduct a preliminary inquiry concerning the allegations contained in the complaint. The Board of Ethics shall afford the person who is the subject of the complaint, an opportunity to respond to the allegations in the complaint. The person shall have the right to be represented by Counsel, to appear and be heard under oath, and to offer evidence in response to the allegations.

Within 15 days after receipt, the complainant may also file with the ethics board a response to the respondent's response which the Board of Ethics must send to the respondent within five days after its filing.
- E. Extensions of time to any of the time limitations specified in this section may be granted by the Board of Ethics upon a vote of the majority of the members. If no meeting can be held before such time limit runs, the Chair may extend the time frame until the following meeting. The Board of Ethics must give written notice of any extensions of time to the respondent and the complainant.
- F. All proceedings and records relating to a preliminary inquiry being conducted by the Board of Ethics shall be confidential until a final determination is made by the Board of Ethics, except:

- G. The Board of Ethics shall make a determination based on its preliminary inquiry whether the complaint is within its jurisdiction, and if so, whether it alleges a minimal factual basis to constitute reasonable suspicion as to a violation of this Ordinance. If the Board of Ethics concludes that the complaint is outside of its jurisdiction, frivolous, or without factual basis, the Board of Ethics shall immediately terminate the inquiry, reduce the conclusion to writing, and transmit a copy of its decision to the complainant and to all Officers or Employees against whom the complaint was filed.
- H. If the Board of Ethics concludes, based upon its preliminary inquiry, that the complaint is within its jurisdiction and contains allegations sufficient to establish a minimal factual basis to constitute reasonable suspicion as to a violation, the Board of Ethics shall notify the Officer or Employee who is the subject of the complaint and may initiate a hearing to determine whether there has been a violation.
- I. If a complaint is accepted or prepared pursuant to subsection (A), the Board of Ethics must conduct an investigation. From this point on, the complainant may not withdraw their complaint, although they may request that the Board of Ethics either make a finding of no probable cause or no violation.

- J. In conducting an investigation, the Board of Ethics may administer Oaths, Affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, and require the production of any books or records it deems relevant and material. The Police Department and all City Agencies, Bodies, Officials, and Employees are required to respond fully and truthfully to all inquiries and cooperate with all requests of the Board of Ethics or its Agents relating to an investigation. It is a violation of this Code for any Official or Employee to deny access to information requested by the Board of Ethics in the course of an investigation or a Public Hearing, except to the extent that such denial is required by Federal, State, or Local Laws.
- K. Nothing in this section may be construed to permit the Board of Ethics to conduct an investigation of itself, any of its members, or staff. If the Board of Ethics receives a complaint alleging that the Board of Ethics, any of its members, or staff has violated any provision of this Code or any other Law, the Board of Ethics must promptly transmit to the Legislative Body a copy of the complaint.

If the Board of Ethics determines that a hearing regarding allegations contained in the complaint is necessary, the Board of Ethics shall issue an order setting the matter for a hearing within 30 days of the date the order is issued, unless the respondent petitions for and the Board of Ethics consents to a later date. The order setting the matter for hearing, along with a copy of any pertinent regulations of the Board of Ethics relating to the hearing, shall be sent to the respondent within 24 hours of the time the order setting a hearing is issued.

- A. The Kentucky Rules of Civil Procedure and the Kentucky Rules of Evidence shall not apply to hearings conducted by the Board of Ethics; however, the hearings shall be conducted in accordance with this section and in accordance with any additional rules and regulations adopted by the Board of Ethics so as to afford all parties the full range of due process rights required by the nature of the proceedings.
- B. Prior to the commencement of the hearing, the respondent or their representative shall have a reasonable opportunity to examine all documents and records obtained or prepared by the Board of Ethics in connection with the matter to be heard. The Board of Ethics shall inform the alleged violator or their representative of any exculpatory evidence in its possession.
- C. All testimony in a Board of Ethics hearing shall be taken under Oath, administered by the Presiding Officer. All parties shall have the right to call and examine witnesses, introduce exhibits, cross-examine witnesses, submit evidence, and to be represented by Counsel. All witnesses shall have the right to be represented by Counsel.

- D. Any person whose name may be adversely affected thereby may appear personally before the Board of Ethics with or without counsel to give a statement regarding the adverse mention or may file a written statement regarding the adverse mention for incorporation into the record of the proceeding.
- E. All hearings of the Board of Ethics shall be public unless the members vote to go into Executive Session in accordance with KRS 61.810.
- F. After the conclusion of the hearing, the Board of Ethics shall, as soon as practicable, begin deliberations in Executive Session for the purpose of reviewing the evidence before it and making a determination whether a violation of this Ordinance has been proven. Within 30 days after completion of the hearing, the Board of Ethics shall issue a written report of its findings and conclusions.
- G. If the Board of Ethics concludes in its report that no violation of this Ordinance has occurred, it shall immediately send written notice of this determination to the respondent and to the complainant.
- H. If the Board of Ethics concludes in its report that, in consideration of the evidence produced at the hearing, there is clear and convincing proof of a violation of this Ordinance, the Board of Ethics shall within 15 days:
 - 1. Issue an order requiring the respondent to cease and desist the violation.
 - 2. In writing, publicly reprimand the respondent for the violations and provide a copy of the reprimand to the Executive Authority and Legislative Body of the City or Governing Body of the City Agency with which the respondent serves.
 - 3. In writing, recommend to the Executive Authority and the Legislative Body or Governing Body of the City Agency, that the respondent be sanctioned, as recommended by the Board of Ethics, which may include a recommendation for discipline, dismissal, or removal from Office.
 - 4. Issue an order requiring the respondent to pay a civil penalty of not more than $1,000.
 - 5. Refer evidence of criminal violations of this Ordinance or State Laws to the County Attorney or Commonwealth Attorney of the jurisdiction for prosecution.

SECTION 39. Appeals

30 days after the date of the final action by the Board of Ethics by filing a petition with the Court against the Board of Ethics. The Board of Ethics shall transmit to the Clerk of the Court all evidence considered by the Board of Ethics at the public hearing.

SECTION 40. Limitation of Actions

- A. Except when the period of limitation is otherwise established by State Law, an action for a violation of this Ordinance must be brought within one year after the violation is discovered.

SECTION 41. Advisory Opinions

- A. The Board of Ethics may render Advisory Opinions concerning matters under its jurisdiction, based upon real or hypothetical facts and circumstances, upon its own initiative, when requested by any Officer or Employee of the City or a City Agency covered by this Ordinance.
- B. An Advisory Opinion shall be requested in writing and shall state relevant facts and ask specific questions. The request for an Advisory Opinion shall remain confidential unless confidentiality is waived in writing by the requestor. Any proposed Advisory Opinion filed by the requesting party shall be submitted to the Board of Ethic's Legal Counsel for review prior to the issuing of the Advisory Opinion.
- C. All Advisory Opinions shall be public documents, except that before an Advisory Opinion is made public, it shall be redacted so that the identity of any person associated with the Opinion shall not be revealed.
- E. A written Advisory Opinion issued by the Board of Ethics shall be binding on the Board of Ethics in any subsequent proceeding concerning the facts and circumstances of the particular case, if no intervening facts or circumstances arise which would change the Opinion of the Board of Ethics if they existed at the time the Opinion was rendered. However, if any fact determined by the Board of Ethics to be material was omitted or misstated in the request for an Opinion, the Board of Ethics shall not be bound by the Opinion.
- F. A written Advisory Opinion issued by the Board of Ethics shall be admissible in the defense of any criminal prosecution or civil proceeding for violations of this Ordinance for actions taken in reliance on that Opinion.
- G. Advisory Opinions will be indexed and maintained on file by the Board of Ethics, by the City Clerk, and will also be available on the City website with unnecessary financial and personal details redacted.
